

Hazard management

1. Hazard: What do you think?

In your own words, define the word hazard:

2. Read the following scenarios carefully and answer the questions below.

You are walking home from school with a group of friends. Ahead of you, a big truck is parked over the footpath while it unloads. It is causing a build up of traffic on the road.

What is the hazard?

What could happen?

What could you and your friends do to handle the situation safely?

3. The road is almost completely blocked by two fire engines and other emergency vehicles. There are people and fire hoses everywhere. You are approaching the scene on your bike.

What is the hazard?

What could happen?

What could you do to handle the situation safely?

4. Your school mate is biking along with a large box balanced on their handlebars that is blocking their view. There are cars directly in front of them.

What is the hazard?

What could happen?

What could you and your friend do to handle the situation safely?

5. Your school mate is riding a bike. Coming up behind is a car that is weaving all over the road.

What is the hazard?

What could happen?

What could you and your friend do to handle the situation safely?

6. You are walking to a marae along a country road with whānau. You approach a bend in the road that you can't see around.

What is the hazard?

What could happen?

What could you and your whānau do to handle the situation safely?

7. You see a pair of young kids driving a quad bike along a steep ridge.

What is the hazard?

What could happen?

What could you and your friends do to handle the situation safely?

8. You are riding a bike in pouring rain. A large truck goes by and sprays you with water.

What is the hazard?

What could happen?

What could you do to handle the situation safely?

9. You are going home on the school bus. There are bags and other gear all down the aisle.

What is the hazard?

What could happen?

What could you and your friends do to handle the situation safely?

