

Manaakitanga while travelling

1. The concept of manaakitanga in safe travel

Manaakitanga in safe travel encourages individuals to prioritise the wellbeing of others, fosters a sense of community and connection, and contributes to creating a safer and more inclusive travel environment for everyone.

Manaakitanga

(noun) hospitality, kindness, generosity, support – the process of showing respect, generosity and care for others.

Activity: Suggest scenarios and write about how manaakitanga can be demonstrated in real-life travel situations.

Scenario:

Example: You are waiting at a bus stop, and a person with a disability arrives, struggling to navigate the curb and board the bus.

How can you demonstrate manaakitanga in this situation?

Example: Offer to assist them to safely navigate the curb and board the bus. Communicate respectfully and treat them with dignity and kindness.

Scenario 1:

How can you demonstrate manaakitanga in this situation?

Scenario 2:

How can you demonstrate manaakitanga in this situation?

Scenario 3:

How can you demonstrate manaakitanga in this situation?

Kia mauri tū!
What is manaakitanga and how can we use it to contribute to safe travel?

3. In the space below, draw out a map of your journey to school and name the roads along the way (use an online map if you need to).

Compare your journey with the journeys' of your peers. Have conversations with classmates who travel the same way to school as you about manaakitanga, safe travel and how to help each other and other ākonga from your school along the way to support everyone to get to school safely.

Think about a time when someone showed manaakitanga towards you.
How did it make you feel?